

ERFA Clauses for Collection of Personal Information

ERFA clause for collection of personal information in internal communications:

“Edmund Rice Foundation (Australia) is committed to the lawful collection of personal information under the Australian Privacy Act (1988). We collect personal information for marketing and communications purposes. Without such information we are unable to conduct stakeholder engagement and fundraising activities to the best of our ability. By visiting our website, making a donation, signing up to our newsletter, filling out a survey, applying for employment, or providing us with your information by any other means, you agree to the collection, usage, disclosure and storage of, and access to your personal information, as contained in our Privacy Policy. ERFA does not disclose personal information to any overseas recipients. For further enquiries regarding our privacy measures or to update your personal information please contact us at +61 7 3621 9649 or info@erf.org.au.”

Shortened ERFA clause for collection of personal information in internal communications:

“Edmund Rice Foundation (Australia) is committed to the lawful collection of personal information under the Australian Privacy Act (1988). For further enquiries regarding our privacy measures or to update your personal information please see our Privacy Policy or contact us at +61 7 3621 9649 or info@erf.org.au”

Purpose:

A shortened version of this clause, including a link to ERFA’s full Privacy Policy, is included within all communications distributed to stakeholders where it is reasonable to do so, such as within online and written communications.
